

The most significant lectures by foreign scientists and other guests relevant to the R&D&I field at the evaluated unit during the 2014–2018 reporting period

Name, surname and title(s) of the evaluated unit's member of staff	Lecturer's employer at the time of the lecture	Invited lecture title
Professor John Searle	University of California, Berkeley, USA	18/ 3/ 2019: Institutions and Social World
Jacques Rupnik	College of Europe, Brugge, Belgium	9/ 4/ 2019: the Czech Republic – Central Europe – migration – European Union
Professor Albrecht Classen	University of Arizona, USA	21/ 6/ 2018: The Quest of Meaning in the Middle Ages as a Catalyst for us Today
Professor dr hab. Maciej Serwański	Uniwersytet im. Adama Mickiewicza in Poznani	27/ 4/ 2017: Polish – French relationships in the 17th century on the European background
Thomas Danzl Prof.Dr. Dott.	Hochschule für Bildende Künste Dresden	Turmzimmer im Dachgeschoss des Postamtes Theresienstadt, Tschechische Republik
Professor Dr. Davis Simo	University of Yaoundé (Cameroon)	Interkulturalität und Wissensproduktion
Professor Dr. Goro Christoph Kimura	Sophia University, Tokyo (Japan)	Interlinguale Strategien und Interkulturalität
Prof. Dr. Alison Lewis	University of Melbourne (Australia)	Herausforderungen für die australische Germanistik: Transkulturell, transnational und/oder interdisziplinär?
Professor Dr. Paul Michael Lützeler	Washington University in St. Louis (USA)	Die Rolle der Literatur in der amerikanischen German Studies Association
Professor Dr. Paolo Soethe	Federal University of Paraná (Brazil)	Vilém Flusser und die Interkulturalität: Ein deutschsprachiges Konzept der Vielfalt für Brasilien – aus Prag